Disaster Relief Volunteers Headed to South Carolina

Approximately 15 Disaster Relief Volunteers have been called up from Indiana and ECBA Disaster Relief Team members will among them. Joe Fox and George Euckert from Old Town Hill have teamed up together to coordinate ECBA's DR team. "We wanted to make sure that, as devoted as Alan Stapleton was to disaster relief, that this ministry did not stop, but continued to reach out to those in need, locally, state, and nation wide."

The team will be leaving at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, November 8th and will return on Saturday, November 14th. They are headed to Manning, South Carolina where they will be doing mud outs. Mud outs are when the team goes into homes to clean up mud and water damage. They remove items, such as, furniture, carpeting, dry wall, etc. and any other items damaged by the flooding. They will also do any other jobs as assigned.

Old Town Hill Youth Host Sadie Hawkins Event

By Darla Fox

On October 18th, the youth from Old Town Hill Baptist Church provided quite the show. The theme was Sadie Hawkins. Everyone was encouraged to bring their favorite dish along with the recipe card for the dish. The gym was transformed into a barnyard, complete with backdrop of a barn and a stage that was surrounded with bales of straw and pumpkins.. The youth spent several hours putting together a very entertaining program with lots of singing, dancing, and comical skits. They even provided a history lesson on how Sadie Hawkins Day originated.

All who attended had the opportunity to have their pictures taken, and eat some fabulous foods, and, did I mention, you could go back for seconds. A huge thank you to the OTH youth and youth leaders who did a fantastic job. We have such a great youth program with youth leaders who are always coming up with things to keep them involved. Here at Old Town Hill we can't wait to see what they have in store for us next.

BCM
Ball State
Baptist Collegiate Ministry

Please mark your calendars for this coming November 14th for the annual BCM workday. There are numerous tasks that we hope to accomplish and hope that numerous people will be able to come out and help. We have cabinets to finish painting; the upstairs needs to be painted; the laundry room needs to be completed; a wall needs to be added to create a new room in the front of the house; benches need to be built; and some other general upkeep items could use some attention. Please email me at jeremybcowin@me.com or call (317) 227-9603 and let me know if you have any questions or will be able to help.

Please keep us in your prayers during the upcoming weeks as we prepare for our fall retreat this November 20th and 21st. Please also pray for BCM as we begin to work with Waypoint Bible Church to establish a University Church in Muncie. We have been worshipping our Lord together each Sunday evening and will be working together toward a formal start date in the spring. Watch the upcoming newsletters for more details.

We would also like to begin a more focused effort in reaching out to college students from our local churches. If you know of any college students in your church attending Ball State, Ivy Tech, or Anderson University, we would be grateful if you could forward us their contact information so that we can send them an invitation to some of our upcoming meetings and events. I would also love to have the opportunity to meet with any of your members working with college students to see how we can partner together in reaching students in our area for Christ. Please feel free to forward my contact information to those interested in connecting.

Louis Welty Shares About International Women Ministry

On Sunday evening, November 1st, Louise Welty, ECBA International Women's Ministry Coordinator shared the story of this ministry at Redeemer Baptist Church. She has been involved in the International Women's Ministry since 1991 and has touched the lives of women from 75 countries around the world. The group meets during the school year each Thursday at the Scheidler Apartments Community Room. Louise welcomes any of the women in ECBA to participate in this ministry of making crafts, food and friends while sharing the love of Jesus.
